Premium Summary – Premiums increase on an age related basis.

The values in the table are illustrative and we have based them on the current view of factors we use to determine the premium. Premiums increase each year according to your age.

Age Next	Premium

Any changes to the premium rate will be notified to the Life Insured 31 (thirty-one) days prior to the change taking effect. Such notification will provide appropriate details of the reasons for the change to the premium rate and will afford the Policyholder with reasonable steps, such as an option to terminate the Policy, to mitigate the impact of the increase on the Policyholder. The premium rates may be amended or changed, based on the following factors: past and future expected economic factors (for example, but not limited to, interest rates, tax and inflation), past and future claims experience, past and future expected lapse experience, past and future expected mortality experience, expected future reinsurance, any regulatory and legislative changes impacting this Policy or any other factor impacting the premium that the Insurer deems material at the time.

Special conditions.

1. The permanent disability payment is payable after the temporary disability payments have ceased or at an earlier date if you are deemed permanently disabled.
2. A policy document will be sent to the policyholder upon acceptance of the quotation. In the event of dispute or discrepancy between this quote and the policy contract, the terms and conditions of the policy contract will prevail.
3. This quote is subject to underwriting acceptance. If required, during the period that medical evidence is being collected, cover shall be limited to circumstances where a claim arises due to an accident only. This accident cover will expire on the earliest of 90 days from the commencement date or on acceptance or declination of the cover by Guardrisk following the assessment of the medical evidence.

Waiting periods General Waiting Periods.

There is no general waiting period applicable to this policy.

Retrenchment Benefit Waiting Periods.

The Retrenchment Benefit will not be paid if you have been employed by your employer for less than 12 months prior to your retrenchment or if you are retrenched within the first 6 (six) months from the commencement date of the policy.

Please note that these retrenchment benefit waiting periods where cover is excluded for a period of time will not be applied if you were covered for retrenchment in a policy which you held previously and which is being replaced by this policy provided that the time periods applicable to the waiting periods in your previous policy have been met.

Critical Illness Benefit Waiting Periods.

The Critical Illness Benefit will not be paid for critical Illnesses that occur within 6 (six) months from the commencement date of this policy.

Please note that this Critical Illness Benefit waiting period where cover is excluded for a period of time will not be applied if you were covered for critical illness in a policy which you held previously and which is being replaced by this policy provided that the time periods applicable to the waiting periods in your previous policy have been met.

If you increase your Critical Illness Benefit amount as you are entitled to do after the commencement date of this policy the insurer will apply the 6 (six) month critical illness waiting period to the increased portion of cover.

12 Month Pre-Existing Condition.

There is a general pre-existing condition exclusion applicable to this policy. You will not be entitled to a benefit for any condition that you were aware of, or that you have consulted a Medical Practitioner for, or that you have received medical treatment for in the 12 months preceding the commencement date that results in a claim within the 12 months after the commencement date of the policy.

If you increase your benefit amount as you are entitled to do after the commencement date of this policy the insurer will apply the above 12 months pre-existing condition exclusion to the increased portion of cover.

If this policy is replacing a similar credit life policy then the pre-existing condition and waiting periods will not be applied again if they had already expired under your previous policy and only the unexpired portion of any pre-existing condition period and waiting period will be applied.

Important Policy Exclusions.

There are certain exclusions in your policy which you must read carefully when you receive your policy documents. Please contact us if you do not understand any of these exclusions.
